Welcome to this edition of our prayer diary – and to the 175th anniversary year of CPAS! We thank God for all those who have prayed over the years, and want to thank you for your ongoing prayers and support at this time.

We are currently in the middle of an initiative called 'Making Mission Possible' in which we are working in and with all 43 English dioceses (as well as in Scotland, Ireland and Wales) to enable leaders to grow and develop in and for mission.

Will you join us in praying for church leaders throughout the UK and the Republic of Ireland...

In order to 'calibrate' such leadership it is helpful to return to the foundational call that Jesus gave to his disciples. In Mark's Gospel we are given an account of how Jesus called Simon and Andrew, James and John (Mark 1:16-20). And it is worth us examining this call in order to inform our prayers for CPAS in this anniversary year and during the current initiative.

The call he gives them is, firstly, 'Follow me'. This is not a call to pursue a school of thought, or to practice a set of rituals or spiritual exercises. It is a call to know him, love him, listen to him, wait for him and to serve him. It is about us knowing and being known by him. This must be foundational to all Christian leadership – and we would ask you to pray that we might encourage this amongst the leaders that we work with all over the UK and the Republic of Ireland.

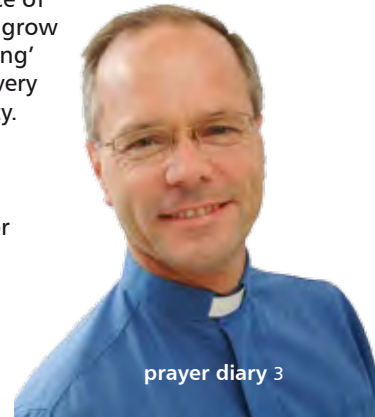

The second facet of his call to discipleship and leadership is in the second half: 'I will send you out to fish for people'. This leads to an inescapable conclusion regarding the Church: namely that our 'core business' is mission. This does not undermine the first part of the call to know him and love him; to worship him and spend time in deepening our relationship with him. Neither does it negate the importance of building community, nor of our commitment to intercession or Bible teaching (especially in this 400th anniversary year of the King James Bible). However, it does underline the responsibility on leadership to ensure that local churches are engaged in the 'fishing' business:

Jesus modelled this 'fishing' ministry in his own leadership. It was to 'fishing' that he commissioned the 12 and the 72 (Luke 9 and 10) – and the Church as a whole in Matthew 28.

It has been said that churches have a 'natural tendency to move from being a mission to a movement to a monument to a mausoleum'. Will you join us in praying for church leaders (ordained and lay, young and old, male and female) throughout the UK and the Republic of Ireland: that they might, with our help and by the grace of God be able to grow successful 'fishing' businesses in every local community.

In his service

sharing your faith

Making and leaving a will is probably one of the most important steps we can take to make sure our money and possessions are distributed as we would wish. But it is also a time when you need to ask yourself whether your will could be a way of sharing your faith beyond your lifetime.

CPAS has sought to support, enable and equip people along their journey of faith for 175 years. Leaving a legacy to CPAS will allow us to continue to enable churches to help every person hear and discover the good news of Jesus Christ.
