

ALNE and BRAFFERTON

Two Benefices
Four Parishes
Six churches

seeks a Priest-in-Charge

The Benefices of Alne and Brafferton are in the County of North Yorkshire. The two Benefices are in rural locations to the north of York.

We offer our Priest:

- Friendship, fellowship, joy and laughter
- Diverse traditions of Christian worship
- Respect for your personal space and needs
- The prayerful and active support of the PCCs, Churchwardens, our Curate and Parish Assistant
- A creative mission-focused Deanery, Chapter and Diocese
- Ministry in attractive rural communities.

We seek a Priest who will help us grow in:

- Christlikeness through deepening and enriching our worship, prayer, study of Scripture, discipleship and generosity
- Commitment to rural mission as we seek to reach those we currently don't across our parishes, Deanery and Diocese
- Partnership with our congregations, our Deanery, local schools and ecumenical friends
- Influence within our communities as a visible and engaged pastor
- Numbers particularly among 20-40 year olds, people in poverty and those seeking faith.

Deadline for applications: Midnight 28th October 2018

Interview date: 4th December 2018

Please apply through the Church of England recruitment portal:

<https://pathways.churchofengland.org/job/pathways/186/priest-in-charge-alne-brafferton>

For an informal conversation please contact The Bishop of Selby
Email: bishopofselby@yorkdiocese.org Tel: 01757 429 982

York Diocesan Vision: Generous Churches Making and Nurturing Disciples York Diocesan Goals: Reach, Grow, Sustain.