

ARROW LEADERSHIP PROGRAMME

Exciting news. Having applied to be part of the Arrow Leadership Programme, a leader you know has been selected to be one of the 24 participants. This sheet gives a brief overview of Arrow to help you understand what the programme is about and how it works. If you'd like further information or stories about Arrow's impact please go to www.cpas.org.uk/arrow.

Our Heritage

The Arrow Leadership Programme is run by CPAS. We are an Anglican evangelical mission agency committed to growing leaders and growing churches within the Church of England. Our founders' vision was the 'gospel to everyone's door with the single aim to glorify God.' It is our conviction that leadership of healthy local churches is essential to the realisation of this vision. Arrow was established in the UK by CPAS in 1999. Arrow UK, now in our 19th year, is part of a growing Alliance of 10 countries who run Arrow.

The Purpose

Arrow exists to develop Christian leaders for the church of the 21st century:

- Leaders dependent on the grace of God, confident about who they are in Christ, and empowered by the Holy Spirit.
- Leaders clear about their unique call and consistent in living it out.
- Leaders serving the kingdom with personal lives modelled on the servant character of Jesus.
- Leaders passionate for and committed to evangelism.
- Leaders skilled and competent to lead organisations or churches at a time of great challenge and change.

The Programme

Arrow is a programme aimed at life transformation. It is not merely another course or conference. It doesn't simply add a few extra skills to the life of the leader, but considers the deeper issues of call and character. Over 18 months it provides an opportunity to grow through teaching, reflection, worship, interaction, application, accountability and fun. The elements of the programme are:

- Four five-day residentials and three one-day events.
- A monthly meeting with a mentor.
- Two meetings with other participants between each residential.
- Guided reading, reflection and integration work (approximately three hours per week).

Your Support

Arrow is a challenging experience. The person you know would value your prayers and practical support as they go through the programme. Inevitably it is quite a time commitment. However, experience suggests that not only will the participant benefit, but those they lead will benefit as well. If you'd like to know more about how to support them through Arrow, please do let them know. They have access to a range of resources, including some brief videos of previous participants speaking of their experience of Arrow.
