

PRACTICES 4-5

OWN UP

We are focusing on practices 4 and 5 in this webinar: practise faith conversations and tell faith stories. These are about helping people own up to their faith. We hope you find this handout helpful for capturing insights, ideas and questions from the webinar.

WHY HELP PEOPLE SPEAK OF THEIR FAITH

'If we aren't talking about our faith when we gather, we are far less likely to talk about our faith when we are scattered.'

TELL FAITH STORIES

PRACTISE FAITH CONVERSATIONS

THOUGHTS, IDEAS AND QUESTIONS

NEXT STEPS

When might it be good to introduce these practices?

Who could you involve in introducing these practices?

What is the next step for you to take?

When could you action this next step?

FURTHER RESOURCES

You will find a range of resources on our website at www.cpas.org.uk/77:

1. Summaries of practice 4 and practice 5 to share as PDFs or print off and distribute to those you lead with.
2. How to Tell Your Story, an e-learning guide for all your church members with creative suggestions to help them tell their own story really well.
3. Guide 1: Evangelism Expectations, explores what expectations are appropriate for your congregation members in faith sharing.
4. Additional ideas for practising faith conversations.

In addition, The One About from LICC is a series of resources to help people tell their stories of how God has used them in everyday life, including a video from Mark Greene on how to spot possible stories to tell.